

TIMES HERALD

Dorothy Jacquelin Dies, Former CIA Economist

Dorothy Grant Jacquelin, 57, senior economist with the Central Intelligence Agency until last year, died Sunday of cancer at Washington Hospital Center.

Born in San Francisco, Mrs. Jacquelin received the bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from University of California. She was awarded the doctor of philosophy degree in economics at University of Geneva, Switzerland, in 1939.

At first employed by the Bank of America, Mrs. Jacquelin worked for the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Commission in Australia, London and Poland following World War II. She joined the Economic Cooperation Administration in 1949 and in 1951 transferred to CIA.

Her home was at 1734 P st. nw.